Superior National Forest - Pfeiffer Lake

Description

Situated on the shore of a 55-acre lake, the Pfeiffer Lake Recreation Area has many facilities for the one-day family outing or a two-week camping trip. Free day-use facilities include a sandy beach with picnic tables and grills, a boat landing, playground area, fishing deck and hiking trail. The camping sites are suitable for tents and RVs. Showers and electrical hookups are not available at this campground. The fee camping season runs from May through mid-September, the campground does remain open at reduced service and no fee into November depending on weather conditions.
